APPAREL PRINTING

Maverick specializes in direct-to-garment, digital apparel printing and is the exclusive custom-decorated sportswear provider for all Rainier Software clients.

The inspiration of local Seattle businessman, entrepreneur and former NFL player, Mark Pattison, Maverick was founded as an outgrowth of the highly successful promotional products company, ThePattisonGroup.com, which has worked with well-known corporate clients and major brands such as Starbucks, Microsoft, Fox NFL, Pepsi and more, since 1994.

With Maverick on your team, you now have a fast, high quality and economical way to decorate top brand name apparel and merchandise with your own custom logos and designs. Best of all, no one from your club or team has to handle or store any inventory, because we print on demand and drop ship all logoed merchandise directly to the purchaser using USPS flat rate.

- ★ Full color process printing available at no additional charge
- ★ See how your custom designs and logos will look on your apparel, up close, before you order.
- ★ Green, eco-friendly inks.
- ★ No minimums. No screen charges. No set up fees.
- ★ Fast turnaround because you're ordering directly from the printer.

If you need help creating your club or league's logo or design, Maverick has a staff of friendly, talented graphic designers ready to bring your concept to life. We charge a flat rate of $149, including two revisions. For more details, please contact us at: CustomerService@MaverickAP.com.
